Rossini's famous 'Barber of Seville' Opera is the sequel to Mozart's 'Marriage of Figaro' - it tells the story of Dr Bartolo's travelling circus and his beautiful ward Rosina, who is the star of the show. A young man, Amlaviva, attempts to woo Rosina but Dr Bartolo wants to marry her himself. It features many famous musical moments (e.g. the virtuoso aria 'Largo al Factotum' Figaro Figaro Figaro) and beautiful love serenades.
